All-American Picnic

An excellent Fourth of July celebration always includes three things: great food, great music, and great people. Marian Manor residents, families, and team members found all of this and more at our Independence Day event! Patriotic music was performed by the 45-piece Hampton Roads Metro Band as folks shared laughs and a meal. Chef Malcolm and his dining team served up all our favorites from hot dogs and hamburgers to corn on the cob, baked beans, fried chicken, potato salad, and coleslaw.

What a spread! The buffet had people coming back for seconds and thirds.

At 102 years young, Helen Meima has the most July 4th celebrations under her belt!

Turning Over a New Leaf

Our outdoor spaces continue to change for the better. Friend of Marian Manor Charlie Daniels donated a variety of trees to the landscaping behind the community. The beautiful new tree line is dedicated in honor of Reba's Animal Rescue in memory of Mr. Daniels wife, Melony Daniels. The lovely butterfly garden was donated by Virginia Senator Bill DeSteph.

The new flowers and shrubs will serve as pollinators for our colorful, flying friends!

It's a Small World

Resident Susan and Life Enrichment Associate Roshell Yancy have a unique shared history: they are both Booker T. Washington High School Alumni! Booker T. is located in Norfolk and is home to “the Mighty Bookers.” Susan was a department chair and history teacher at Booker T. and Roshell is a graduate of the school. (Susan still stretches her teaching muscles by leading a history class for her fellow residents.) They love to call each other by their nicknames—Mama Booker and Baby Booker!

Book Smart

Lennis Sullivan and her assistant, Katie Loggins, stopped by to help residents Ann Marie Campbell and Peggy Gibson pull some “well-loved” books from our library. The books were returned to the Virginia Beach Library where they will be properly recycled. Duplicate copies were donated to the Eagle Scout Small Lending Library Project. Lennis and Katie will be back in the fall to refresh our collection with some new large-print books.
