Marvelous

MOM

Marian Manor celebrated Mother's Day with a beautiful Orange Blossom Brunch shared by residents and their families. Chef Malcolm and his team prepared an exceptional menu featuring chilled mango soup, a smoked salmon bagel station, beef tenderloin, crab-stuffed salmon, turkey croquettes, and a variety of traditional brunch favorites. Loved ones gathered together to honor and celebrate the special mothers and women of our community, creating a warm and memorable occasion for all.

Honoring our Volunteers

Volunteers hold a special place in our community. They are deeply appreciated for their hard work, kindness, and dedication in helping staff and residents enjoy a wide variety of life-enriching activities. From Bingo and art classes to bear stuffing, gardening, and our famous Popcorn Brothers who pop fresh popcorn each week, our volunteers bring joy and connection to everyday life at Marian Manor.

To celebrate and recognize their contributions, Marian Manor hosted a lively, Victorian-themed Murder Mystery dinner theater show written and performed by members of our management, nursing, dining, and life enrichment teams. The event was filled with laughter, entertainment, and appreciation for the many people who make a difference in the lives of our residents and staff.

Welcoming New Faces

When new residents move to Marian Manor, we welcome them with a special chef-prepared lunch. New families sit alongside our resident ambassadors and get to know our management team over delicious food. The intimate setting creates a welcoming atmosphere for new residents to connect with our team.
